

DIARY NOTES

Executive Director-Comptroller

31 August 1965

1. I approved the recommendation of the DD/I and the Director of Training to nominate [redacted] for the fellowship in Congressional Relations. [redacted]

However, he is a good man and I think that he will represent the Agency well in the program, which lasts for approximately a year.

[redacted] a [redacted] people. It was a good presentation, although almost certainly we will have to cut back the request somewhat before presenting it to the Bureau of the Budget.

3. The Director buzzed to request that I have [redacted] get in touch with [redacted] [redacted] who telephoned to say that he had some information about [redacted] which he thought would be of interest to us. This has been arranged.

4. As an economy suggestion I asked Bob Bannerman to investigate the possibility of getting along with fewer lights in the garage, especially on Saturdays and Sundays.

5. I attended a meeting between the Director and Mr. Kirkpatrick at which time Kirk presented the Director with the Agency long-range plan. The Director expressed his appreciation for the plan and Kirk expressed his personal satisfaction with having been able to produce it. The Director was most anxious to find statistics which he could use for budget and other presentations. Kirk said that he wouldn't find many of these in the plan itself but that there were statistics in abundance in the annexes, which I understand are some three or four feet high. The Director also indicated that he wanted to send the plan over his own signature to the President, the Bureau of the Budget, and a number of other people. While I will follow up on this, I question the wisdom of sending the plan itself outside the Agency. It might well be advisable, however, to send a brief note to the President saying that we have the plan, etc., etc.

6. Bob Bannerman telephoned me about the propriety of having [] interviewed by our Training Selection Board as a candidate for the National War College while [] [] I told Bob that I thought we should have no reservation whatever since the [] understands that he will be returning to the Agency not later than next spring. I also said that, in view of the fact that [] gave up an opportunity to go to the War College in order to accept the [] he should be a shoo-in if the War College will grant him an age waiver.
